

Quiz on OU MUN Rules of Procedure

Basic

1. The _____ is used to help establish the order in which topics will be debated.
2. Once a topic is decided upon, the _____ should be opened.
3. After speaking from the Speakers List, a delegate can yield remaining time to the chair or to _____ or to _____.
4. True/False A point of order can interrupt a speaker.
5. True/False A right of reply can interrupt a speaker.
6. Delegates can leave their seats and discuss items more informally during a _____ caucus.
7. When making a motion for a caucus, you should specify at least three things. What are they?
8. Any resolution or recommendation requires ____% of the committee members as sponsors or signatories.
9. True/False Motion to Introduce a Resolution requires majority approval.
10. Give three examples of words use to introduce perambulatory clauses and three words used to introduce operative clauses.
11. If you think there has been enough debate on a resolution and wish to vote on it, you would do what?
12. True/False If you don't know something about your country, you can pass a note to the Chair and ask for "Home Country" help and you will get an answer to your question.

More Advanced

1. If no country is on the Speaker's List and there is no resolution on the floor, what happens?

2. You can have consecutive caucuses for a maximum of ____ minutes.
3. True/False A point of inquiry can interrupt a speaker.
4. True/False During moderated caucus, you can yield your time just as you would during formal debate from the Speaker's List.
5. True/False Only one motion can be entertained or considered at a time.
6. True/False Amendments must be made in writing and approved by the chair for formatting issues.
7. During roll call vote, you can vote, Yes, No, _____, and _____.
8. True/False Any OUMUN committee can invite non-member states or representatives of NGOs to come to the committee to answer questions or inform the committee on a particular issue.

Expert

1. If you are speaking from the Speaker's List and have a question for another delegate, a good strategy would be to speak and then _____.
2. True/False There can be a right of reply to a right of reply.
3. True/False If you want to hurry the committee along or end debate on a topic, you can motion to limit debate on a topic to a certain time period or number of speakers.
4. True/False You can table a topic, a resolution, and motions.
5. Three motions at OUMUN do not require a vote. They are "passed" as a matter of courtesy or for efficiency. What are they?
6. If something is tabled and you want to allow it to be debated or used, you should make a motion to _____.
7. If you like most of a resolution but really dislike one part of it, what should you do? Should you just vote against it?

8. If you are against a resolution, in addition to voting against it you can _____, try to _____ or offer _____.

SC Rules

1. How many states have veto power?
2. How many vetoes does it take to defeat a proposal?
3. Can the SC invite observers (non-member states) in to answer questions AND participate in debate?
4. What is a directive?
5. True/False Directives can just be stated out loud and they immediately take effect.