EDWARD KUHN MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP AVAILABLE

The new EDWARD KUHN MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP is granted to an upper division undergraduate student in the Wellness, Health Promotion, and Injury Prevention (WHP) Program. This scholarship is named in honor of Edward Kuhn, a health enthusiast and long-time member of the Meadow Brook Health Institute at Oakland University. Awarded to WHP students who demonstrate academic promise, have contributed to university and community life and who demonstrate financial need. To receive full consideration, it is recommended that students complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Awards are made by the School of Health Sciences. The award application is due July 1st, 2015 (See application form).

Students may be continuing students or new applicants, but must be full time students for the academic year in which the scholarship is awarded [i.e. 12 credits per semester for undergraduate students; but this may include progress (P grades) in the Internship (WHP 401), and/or Senior Culminating Experience project (WHP 402)].

The scholarship is a $1,500 award and will be given to one student and distributed over the Fall and Winter semesters of the 2015-2016 academic year. The scholarship will be advertised on an annual basis with final selection announced by the School of Health Sciences/WHP Program prior to the commencement of the fall semester.

Application for the scholarship is open ended and selection is based on best qualified. Academic standing and completion of core WHP courses (3rd/4th year student) will be a strong factor in determining recipients. The application is to include: 1) Letter of application; 2) Application form; 3) Resume; and, 4) Two letters of recommendation.

Determination of scholarship awards will include consideration of the following expectations:

- Must be a WHP major with a minimum cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 3.0 in School of Health Sciences courses; an overall GPA not less than 3.0; and no WHP courses below 2.5.
- Activity/service involvement in the WHP Program and/or WHP Student Society plus demonstrated willingness to contribute to community service/wellness events
- Demonstrated physical activity involvement and experience (includes commitment to fitness, sport participation, or other physical activity related areas)
- Evidence of character, generic skills, experience, and/or academic potential as related to:
  1. Leadership
  2. Effective communication
  3. Discipline to follow through on responsibilities
  4. Dependability
  5. Professional commitment

Recipients will be determined by a School of Health Sciences Scholarship Committee.
