

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, EAST BAY at HAYWARD (California)

MA & MS in Interdisciplinary Studies (a.k.a. Special Major)

Program Path:

IDS Type: Unrestricted IDS

Program Type: Floating IDS Program

Description: The purpose of the Interdisciplinary Studies Major and the Special Certificate programs is to allow students, with the advice and approval of knowledgeable faculty and administrators, to design their own academic programs tailored to their unique needs and interests. (From website.)

Program Structure:

Admission Requirements: Application, Official Undergraduate Transcripts, Resume, One page Plan of Study, Writing Samples, GRE, Letters of Recommendation

Credit Hours: 45-52 credits

Required Coursework: None

Individually Selected Coursework: 42-52 credits (students select all coursework under the supervision of a three faculty supervisors)

Exit Courses & Work: Optional Thesis depending on approved plan of study.

Established Department(s) of Focus: Open

Program Statistics:

Faculty: No information available

Students: Resident students only (up to 13 non-resident credits allowed)

Program History: No information available

Contact Information:

Address: California State University, East Bay, Office of Academic Programs and Graduate Studies, Warren Hall 859, 25800 Carlos Bee Boulevard, Hayward, CA 94542

Phone Number: 510-885-3716

Email: No email listed.

Website: <http://www20.csueastbay.edu/ecat/graduate-chapters/g-idst.html>