Paul Swanson
Vice President, Human Resources
Trinity Health, Farmington Hills, Michigan

Paul is a VP in Human Resources at the Home Office at Trinity Health in Farmington Hills Michigan. Trinity Health is the fourth largest Catholic Healthcare System with 44 hospitals and 33 long-term care facilities employing over 50,000 associates across seven states. Swanson has over 30 years of health care human resource experience.

Since arriving at Trinity Health (formerly Mercy Health Services) in 1979, Swanson has focused on benefits and retirement programs most recently. Other Human Resource services to include: strategy development, workforce technology, service delivery, and merger and acquisitions.

Swanson received a Bachelor of Arts in Economics from Oakland University in 1973. He received a Masters of Labor Relations from Michigan State University, Lansing, Michigan in 1975. Paul lives in Waterford, Michigan with his wife Gretchen, also an OU graduate. They have two daughters, ages 26 and 29. He enjoys golf and boating activities.