about the conference

This conference brings together preK-12 educators, teacher educators and community advocacy organizations to improve educational opportunities for all Michigan youth, regardless of actual or perceived sexual orientation, gender identity and/or gender expression. Participants will engage in rich dialogue facilitated by leading experts, share resources and identify best practices. Together, we will plan our next steps toward creating safer, more welcoming and inclusive schools. We urge you to come listen, learn, and add your voice to this critical conversation.
