

Agendum
Oakland University
Board of Trustees Formal Session
February 6, 2023

AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE LIBRARY
A Recommendation

1. Division and Department: Academic Affairs; University Libraries.

2. Introduction: The Board of Trustees (Board) has delegated full authority and responsibility for the shared governance of Oakland University (University) to the President, subject to Board limitations and policies. The Board has also recognized the University Senate as an organization to advise the President in regard to academic policies and programs.

The University Senate is organized and functions in accordance with a constitution that requires Board approval (Senate Constitution). The Board originally approved a Senate Constitution on June 2, 1977, and also approved amendments to the Senate Constitution through February 15, 1984. The Senate Constitution provides that the University Senate must “approve, disapprove and make recommendations regarding the constitutions proposed by the various organized faculties of the University.” “Organized faculties” refer to the library and the various schools and colleges approved by the Board. The constitutions of the library and the various schools and colleges require not only Senate approval, but also Board approval.

The Board of Trustees first approved the Constitution of the Library on December 11, 1985. The Board last approved an amendment to the Constitution of the Library on April 11, 2016. The faculty of the Library now wishes to amend the Constitution of the Library to reflect editorial changes, inclusive language, and the definition of the Committee on Instruction as part of the Library’s Faculty Assembly.

3. Previous Board Action: The Constitution of the Library was first approved by the Board of Trustees on December 11, 1985. On February 6, 1997, June 2, 2004, March 2, 2010, and April 11, 2016 the Board approved amendments to the Constitution of the Library.

4. Budget Implications: None.

5. Educational Implications: Oakland University Libraries are the intellectual center of Oakland University. As leading advocates for knowledge equity, we advance student success and transform lives by inspiring discovery, creativity, research, and learning in an evolving information environment. The University Libraries' services and resources support student success, facilitate research, and promote lifelong learning.

6. Personnel Implications: None.

7. University Reviews/Approvals: A proposed amendment to the Library Constitution was approved by the Library Faculty Assembly on November 10, 2022. It was approved by the University Senate on January 19, 2023, is acceptable to the Provost and President, and has been reviewed and approved by the Office of Legal Affairs and complies with the limitations and policies established by the Board with regard to shared governance generally, and the constitutions of the Senate and organized faculties specifically.

8. Recommendation:

WHEREAS, the Constitution of the Oakland University Senate, as authorized by the Board of Trustees, provides for certain functions to be assigned to the organized faculties of the Collage, Schools, and Library; and

WHEREAS, the Board of Trustees has acted to approve internal constitutions in order to obtain the input and recommendations of faculty, staff, and students on matters relating to the programs of Oakland University, but has retained unto itself the full authority granted to it by law; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that notwithstanding any provision of the proposed, amended Constitution of the Library, the Board of Trustees reconfirms its legal authority to grant, modify and rescind internal constitutions when the Board determines such action to be in the interest of the University or required to comply with its legal obligations; and, be it further

RESOLVED, that the Board of Trustees, under the conditions set forth above, approves the amended Constitution of the Oakland University Library, attached hereto, effective February 6, 2023.
