Faculty Publications 2012- present

Feingold, E., Adams, J., Penprase, B., & Tubie, B. (2015). Effect of body mass index and albumin on mortality rates for adult African American hemodialysis patients. JAANP. Accepted.

Harris, M. A., & Pittiglio, L. I. (2012, April). Medication error surveillance of undergraduate nursing students in the clinical setting

Penprase, B. & Harris, M. (2012). Factors in an ASDN program that contribute to success on the RN-NCLEX.

Presentations:

Abele, C., & Penprase, B. (2012, June). Can pre-nursing course grades be used to help students succeed in becoming a registered nurse? Poster presentation at Innovations in Nursing Education Research by National League of Nursing (NLN) and Sigma Theta Tau International (STTI). Indianapolis, IN.

Holka, K. is presenting an active learning technique at the Instructional Fair on April 1st. She is co-presenting with Dr. Rebecca Cheezum and Marjorie Lang, JD, MA from the School of Health Sciences regarding their panel discussion collaboration entitled "Ethical Issues in Medical Malpractice: A discussion to Foster Compassionate Patient Care."

Konkani, A., Oakley, B., Penprase, B., Topacio, J., Simpson, S., & Kring, B. (April, 2012). Reduction of noise levels in the pediatric intensive care unit (PICU) of Beaumont Hospital. Poster Presentation at OU's Center for Biomedical Research's festival, Rochester, MI.

Penprase, B., Grobbel, C., & Poly-Droulard, L. (October, 2015). QSEN into undergraduate nursing leadership course using simulation for student to experience the impact of communication, bedside handoffs, SBAR, teamwork and delegation on quality patient care. Las Vegas. Poster Presentation

Grobbel, C., & Penprase, B. (October, 2015). Teaching students the art & science of caring to improve quality of care using the Quality and Safety Education in Nursing (QSEN) framework with the Caring Studio Experience. NLN Summit. Las Vegas. Poster Presentation.

Penprase, B. & Eastman, B. (February, 2013). Getting Back to Center: How to use mindfulness & compassion to change the lives of your patients & yourselves. Leadership Forum Retreat. Rochester Community House, Rochester, MI.

Penprase, B. (September, 2012). Learning through flexible and creative teaching methods. Lilly Conference in Traverse City, MI. Poster Presentation.

Penprase, B., & Harris, M. (October, 2012). Understanding curricula design and how it impacts NCLEX-RN for ASDN students. Nursing Careers in Nursing Fifth Annual Summit. Poster Presentation. Two nights at the hotel, flight/train or car costs up to $400 and up to $200 for meals outside of the meeting are paid for by the conference.

Pittiglio, L. "Reducing HIV/AIDS in Michigan African American Young Adult Women" which has been accepted for publication in Journal of the Association of Nurses in AIDS Care.

Poly-Droulard, L. & Penprase, B. received approval to present at: "On The Verge: Debating the Future of University Teaching (Seventh Annual Conference on Teaching & Learning)"

Riley-Doucet, C. (2012, April). Using a Multi-sensory environment (MSE) to assist in the management of agitation in Dementia in an adult day program.

Spencer, K. "Developing Empathy through Imaginative Literature in the Undergraduate Classroom" accepted as a 40-minute presentation for the Lilly Conference in Traverse City, Sept. 20-22, 2012.

Whall, A. Gerontological Society of America, 66th Annual Scientific Sessions, Chairperson of Symposium: Optimizing function in late stage dementia using findings from three programs of research, November 24, 2013.

Whall, A. National American Arab Nurses Association, 2nd Annual Angel of Mercy Award, Keynote: Paths leading to Culturally Competent Care”, September 19, 2013, Dearborn, MI.

BOOKS PUBLISHED

BOOK CHAPTERS

Submitted:

Research Proposals:

