Announcements

Many congratulations to Dr. Todd Shackelford who has been awarded the title of Distinguished Professor by Oakland University based on the recommendations of President George Hynd, Provost James Lentini, and the Board of Trustees. In addition, Dr. Shackelford has been reappointed to his third term as Chair of the Psychology Department by CAS Dean Kevin Corcoran. Amazing work, Todd!

Dr. Keith Williams has been offered the position of Faculty Fellow for the Center for Excellence in Teaching and Learning for the 2016/2017 year. Congratulations Keith, a great accomplishment!

Dr. Kana Taku will be recognized for her Excellence in Teaching at this year’s Faculty Recognition Luncheon. A well-deserved honor, Kana, Congratulations!

OU graduate students continue to shine! Yael Sela is the second PhD student to defend her dissertation in the Psychology Department. Zachary Willockx has successfully defended his Master’s Thesis. And Nicole Jarrett was awarded the Provost Graduate Student Research Award for her Master’s Thesis, “Project Sleep.” Excellent work, Yael, Zachary, and Nicole!

Upcoming Events

April 7: Centria Health Care Meet and Greet (12:00 – 1:00PM). Centria Healthcare will be discussing options for part-time and full-time employment as an Applied Behavior Analyst working with children diagnosed with Autism Spectrum Disorder. Located in the Conference room of Pryale Hall.

January Publications

Graduate students and faculty having lunch with prospective students to the M.S. and Ph.D. program in the Psychology Department at Oakland University

Presentations

