APPOINTMENT OF DEAN OF THE
SCHOOL OF EDUCATION AND HUMAN SERVICES
A Recommendation

1. Division and Department: Academic Affairs/School of Education and Human Services.

2. Introduction: We are pleased to recommend the appointment of Dr. Louis B. Gallien as Dean of the School of Education and Human Services and Professor of Education, with tenure. This recommendation is based on an extensive review of Dr. Gallien's professional record and accomplishments, and support from the faculty and staff of the School of Education and Human Services (SEHS). (See Attachment A, Dr. Gallien's curriculum vita.)

Dr. Gallien, Distinguished Professor of Education, received his Ph.D. in Educational Policy, Administration, and Research from the University of North Carolina, Greensboro. His M.A. in History was also earned at UNC-Greensboro, and his B.S. in Government/History was awarded by Taylor University. He received post-doctoral education at noted institutions, including the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor. Dr. Gallien has served in a number of teaching and administrative roles in higher education, including Associate Professor of Education at Wheaton College, Wheaton, Illinois; Chair/Associate Professor, Department of Teacher Education, Mercer University, Macon Georgia; Professor of Urban Education, Spelman College, Atlanta, Georgia; Adjunct Professor of Educational Studies at Morehouse College and Emory University; and Distinguished Professor of Education, Regent University, Virginia Beach, Virginia. In addition, Dr. Gallien has been a Visiting Scholar at Oxford-Brookes University, in Oxford, England.

Dr. Gallien's primary research focus has been on multiculturalism and pluralism with special reference to African American pedagogy, culture and history. He has earned several awards for his teaching, research, and service, and has been recognized for his life-long commitment to fostering diversity in all levels of education. In addition, he has an impressive grant record for his work on diversity issues, including funding by the U.S. Department of Education and U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development. Dr. Gallien's scholarly publications include a number of articles on male African American educational achievement patterns in the south and in inner-city environments. He has co-edited two texts: Closing the African American Achievement Gap in Higher Education, with Fred Rovai and Helen Stiff-Williams (New York Teacher's College Press, 2007), and Instructing and Mentoring the African American College Student: Strategies for Success in Higher Education (Boston: Allyn and Bacon Publishers).

An Employment Agreement between Dr. Louis B. Gallien and Oakland University has been signed by the parties, but is contingent upon approval of the Board of Trustees. The Employment Agreement was reviewed and approved by the Office of the Vice President for Legal Affairs and General Counsel prior to execution, and is in compliance with the law and University policies and regulations and conforms to the legal standards and policies of the Vice President for Legal Affairs and General Counsel.

3. Previous Board Action: The Board periodically appoints deans at formal sessions of the Board.
4. Budget Implications: Funding for the position of Dean of SEHS is included in the General Fund Budget approved annually by the Board.
5. Educational Implications: Appointing Dr. Gallien as Dean of the School of Education and Human Services will provide academic leadership in the areas of teaching, scholarship and service; will assure leadership in maintaining SEHS and program accreditation standards; and will provide leadership in fostering ties in the wider community.
6. Personnel Implications: The personnel implications are as outlined in the recommendation below.
7. University Reviews/Approvals: An extensive review of Dr. Gallien's professional record and accomplishments was conducted by the Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost and the President.
8. Recommendation:

RESOLVED, that the Board appoints Dr. Louis B. Gallien to the position of Dean of the School of Education and Human Services and Professor of Education with tenure, effective July 1, 2010, in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Employment Agreement between Dr. Louis B. Gallien and Oakland University.
