

A Campus Colloquium

A Kenyan anti-riot policeman walks in front of a burning barricade set up by protesting opposition supporters who ran riot in Kibera, a slum which is an opposition stronghold in Nairobi, Kenya, 31 December 2007.

Kenya's third largest city, Kisumu remains deserted with a billboard poster of Orange Democratic Movement leader Raila Odinga, Kenya 31 December 2007.

*The Department of Political Science,
the Program on International Relations, and the Center for International Programs invite you to join us for a discussion by*

Vincent Khapoya, Political Science

on

ELECTIONS AND CIVIL CONFLICT IN KENYA

Professor Khapoya—a native of Kenya—is professor of Political Science and also teaches African studies at Oakland University.

A Campus Colloquium

Presented by the Center for International Programs
Chaired by Peter Bertocci, Director

Refreshments will be provided.

Date: Wednesday—January 23, 2008

Time: 2:30—4:00 p.m.

Lake Michigan Room at the Oakland Center